☒ Defendant appeared with Counsel.

☐ Defendant appeared without counsel and knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily waived the right to representation by counsel in writing in open court.

☐ State Jail Felony Charge – Class A misdemeanor punishment. Pursuant to §12.44(a), Tex. Penal Code, the Court FINDS that the ends of justice are best served by imposing confinement permissible as punishment for a Class A misdemeanor instead of a state jail felony. Accordingly, Defendant is ORDERED on community supervision as indicated above.

Both parties announced ready for trial. Defendant waived the right of trial by jury and entered the plea indicated above. The Court admonished Defendant. It appeared to the Court that Defendant was mentally competent to stand trial, made the plea freely and voluntarily, and was aware of the consequences of the plea. The Court received the plea and entered it of record. Having heard the evidence submitted, the Court FINDS that such evidence substantiates Defendant's guilt. However, the Court FINDS that it is in the best interest of society and Defendant to defer proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt and to place Defendant on deferred adjudication community supervision.

Therefore, the Court ORDERS no judgment entered at this time. The Court further ORDERS Defendant placed on deferred adjudication community supervision for the period of time indicated above as long as Defendant abides by the conditions of the deferred adjudication community supervision.

The Court FINDS that the Presentence Investigation, if so ordered, was done according to the applicable provisions of Subchapter F, Chapter 42A, Tex. Code Crim. Proc.

After having conducted an inquiry into Defendant's ability to pay, the Court Orders Defendant to pay the fine, court costs, and restitution, if any, as indicated above.

ON COMMUNITY SUPERVISION

You are hereby notified that if the court determines that you have satisfactorily fulfilled the conditions of your community supervision, upon expiration of your community supervision, if certain requirements are met, you may be able to receive judicial clemency from the court. Under Article 42A.701, Code of Criminal Procedure, the Court may use its discretion to exercise judicial clemency in terminating your community supervision if:

1. The court determines that you have satisfactorily fulfilled the conditions of your community supervision.
2. The term of your community supervision has expired, including any amended or modified term of your community supervision.
3. The court discharges you from community supervision.
4. The court sets aside the verdict in your case or permits you to withdraw your plea.
5. The Court hereby verifies that an inquiry as to the Defendant's ability to pay fine and court costs has been complied with at the time of plea.
6. The Court has considered the results of a validated risk and needs assessment before the assignment of conditions of community supervision - OR – the Defendant has waived the required assessment (Art.42A.301).

If the above requirements are met, the Court is authorized to dismiss the accusation, complaint, information, or indictment against you and to release you from all penalties and disabilities resulting from your conviction or plea. However, if the court releases you from the consequences of your conviction or plea, if you are subsequently convicted of another offense, your conviction or plea will be made known to the judge, and if you are an applicant for or holder of a license issued by the Department of Family and Protective Services (hereinafter "Department"), the Department may consider that you previously received community supervision as a factor in issuing, renewing, denying, or revoking a license.
